GOD KNOWLEDGE

In other words, God (and uniquely the Trinity) cannot be known as we know any other object - such as a machine, an objective idea, or a tree - which we are able to “objectify.” We look at objects, and we judge them from a distance through our normal intelligence, parsing out their varying parts, separating this from that, presuming that to understand the parts is always to be able to understand the whole.

BEING KNOWN

TIPS FOR HONEST REFLECTION

- Be aware of self-thoughts
- Be willing to reflect on self-thoughts
- Be prayerful
- Set aside those thoughts that are not of God
- Listen again for what it is God thinks of you
